

Taichung Branch, Taiwan High Prosecutors Office Press Release

Issue date : 2025.09.16

Contact of Point:

Head Prosecutor

HONG-MOU JHANG

04-22232311

Gender Equality & Prevention of Gender-based violence enabled by digital technology

Chief Prosecutor Chin-Chun Lin of High Prosecutors Office Taichung Branch held a speech of Gender Equality & Prevention of Gender-based violence enabled by digital technology, aimed to enhance the understanding of Gender Equality and the law enforcement of the prevention of gender-based violence enabled through digital, Internet usage. The speaker is the head prosecutor Pei Shan Tsai from Taiwan Taipei District Prosecutors Office, who got the Purple Ribbon award in this field of Executive Yuan for her excellent achievement.

She introduced the Me-too movement , 'She said' movie(related to Harvey Weinstein) and the three keystone acts in our country , Gender Equity Education Act , Sexual Harassment Prevention Act, she elaborated those establishment requirements of punishments, the process of protection of the victims, and shared some famous important cases both in our country and abroad with thought-provoking and touching videos as well. She also described her experience of eliminating gender discrimination, proper ways to protect the victim of gender-based violence occurred from digital, Internet usage.

The audience from all the affiliates benefits very much from this lively and inspiring speech.

